THE CONARD-PYLE COMPANY

WEST GROVE, PA., U.S.A.

To Rose Lovers:

July 6, 1943

Three letters recently came—

No. 1 from Fort Defiance, Virginia, ended: "Thanking you for all my good Roses over a period of twenty years and all your kindness."

No. 2 from Chevy Chase, Maryland, said: "We get the greatest kick out of anything to do with the Star Rose Company, be it catalog, package, book, correspondence, or instructions. They all breathe the love and care of Roses and are a little bit of perfection in their sphere."

No. 3 from Mexico City stated: "Today I had the pleasure of receiving the two packages with the Rose bushes that I ordered. They arrived in perfect condition, very well packed and do honor to the important firm that you represent."

Of letter No. 1 we might say what Swinburne said in his "Ode to England": "All our past proclaims our future"—for in a very simple way this customer tells you why Star Roses have a good reputation. It is because for many years we have sent out good Roses.

Letter No. 2 tells another story. You may not have guessed it. We get our maximum enjoyment from well-satisfied customers.

Letter No. 3 tells the story of how we pack. Even at great distances plants arrive safely.

It has become a habit of ours to think that no transaction is completed until the customer has had full value. When we fail, it is tragic. We had a taste of that last spring. "Buried" under an avalanche of orders, with a black frost and "green" help, it was torture when we came to realize how far from our peace-time standards, in some cases, we had slipped in quality of stock, character of packing and delayed service. Therefore, please remember when next you order from this catalog that our policy always is: "Your money's worth or your money back."

The demand for good Roses continues much above normal. The over-all supply, it is evident to us, will not nearly meet the demand.

Our own Rose crop for autumn harvest is growing splendidly and its culture is not being neglected. Therefore, in spite of war and high water, Star Rose buyers will get good Roses in the year ahead, so far as we can foresee.

Although we are preparing for a heavier demand than last year, we suggest that you order promptly and avoid the risk of having part of your order marked "All Sold."

In spite of increased costs of labor and many materials, we are, by careful planning and economies, doing our best to hold our prices in line and you will see that we have made only minor increases.

Was there ever a better time to purchase and plant Roses than in this pre-peace year? If you wait, other things that take thought, time and money may come into the picture and rob your life of the beauty and fragrance which your Roses bring. Can you think of another hobby that will provide more pleasure for more people about you at less cost than good Roses?

A sound investment in good Rose plants provides a continuing pleasure for years and pays dividends in bloom that make the first cost seem a trifle.

Only do not delay.

Robert Pyle

★GOOD NEWS. H.T. (Meiland.) Plant Pat. 426. This hardy, healthy, free-flowering Rose has brought more unsolicited, enthusiastic reports about its splendid all-season performance than any other Rose recently introduced. A customer in Maine "gets more bloom than from any other Hybrid Tea Rose he has ever seen." And from Virginia "Good News is producing dozens of peachy toned Roses at the moment."

The buds of deep coppery pink open slowly to great 60-petaled blooms with a glowing, coppery center, toning to shell-pink on the outer petals. Rich tea fragrance. Many flowers come singly on erect stems. All are long-lasting when cut. $1.50 ea.; 3 for $3.75.† (This Rose and the 3 on the back cover for $4.85. See Offer 124a.)

The Everblooming Hybrid Tea Roses listed on the following pages, if planted in soil that will grow good vegetables, are kinds that the most timid amateur can confidently plant this fall and then rest assured that these Roses will produce blooms next year, and for years to come, to match the forms shown in the illustrations and far surpass these pictures in size and gorgeous colors.

We realize the difficulty amateurs often have in selecting; so throughout the following pages we recommend a number of collections at reduced prices, the most famous of which, and justly so, is the "Star Dozen" offered on page 12.

These Roses are an investment in pleasure that will pay big dividends year after year in colorful, fragrant flowers to enjoy in your garden and also provide blooms for more intimate indoor enjoyment.

STAR ROSES

★CONDESA DE SASTAGO. ③ H.T. Bicolor. This intensely interesting bicolor Rose is about as free in bloom as the famous Radiance and the unique flowers of yellow and raspberry-red are noted for rich, penetrating Rose fragrance. The plants grow upright, vigorous and healthy and have proved to be entirely hardy during severe winters in West Grove. A noted Rosarian, home from war-torn Europe, reported seeing this Rose in every country visited and says "Whenever I saw Roses on that trip, there was Condesa, always dominating the picture, veritably the arrogant, international beauty." Rated by the American Rose Society as one of the best 10 Roses introduced in the last 10 years. (See "Star 25," page 13.)

• Hardy • Climbing Roses

Mere words cannot adequately describe the bounteous beauty of the Hardy Climbing Roses when in colorful full dress in June. They provide more blooms for the ground space occupied than any other high-class flowering plant. When the flowers are gone the lovely foliage remains on the arches, arbors, trellises, fences, or wherever the plants are grown.

The letter after the names indicates the type of growth: C., Climbers, vigorous varieties that make massive canes and climb many feet. Pillar Roses grow only 6 to 8 feet.

★AMERICAN PILLAR. C. Midseason. Pink. The most spectacular and pleasing Rose of this type. The fragrant flowers are single but come in immense heads of from 20 to 40, each head held erect on a long straight, stiff stem. Unequaled for mass decorations. 90 cts. ea.; 3 for $2.25.*

★CLIMBING AMERICAN BEAUTY. C. Very early. Large, sweet-scented, light crimson or deep rose-pink flowers decorate the plant from base to top. You can cut quantities of the long-stemmed blooms for indoors without spoiling the beauty of the plant. 90 cts. ea.; 3 for $2.25.*

★DOUBLOONS. ③ C. Plant Pat. 152. Here is a gloriously lovely climbing yellow Rose, noted for hardiness and vigorous, healthy growth and furnished with dark green leathery foliage. NEW ROSES for Your Garden

★Crimson King.

These varieties, like every new Star Rose, had to undergo a grilling 3-year test in our extensive test-gardens before they were accepted in the Star Rose family. Our test-gardens are on high, wind-swept, unprotected ground where the Roses have to take the buffeting from winds that come from all directions; they have to endure wet and drought and all extremes of temperature and still bloom freely before they graduate. These three came through the test with flying colors and have our hearty recommendation.

★CRIMSON KING. H.T.

Plant Pat. pending. This Rose has notable parents, Crimson Glory × Cardinal, and retains all the best characteristics of both. The beautifully modeled blooms come well above the lustrous, olive-green foliage and the velvety crimson petals retain their color even in intense heat. Crimson King received a high rating for form, color, rich Damask fragrance and healthy plant habit. $1.50 ea.; 3 for $3.75.‡

★HIGHLAND PARK. H.T.

Prop. rights reserved. This exquisite, full-petaled salmon-pink variety produces its great blooms all season on erect, rigid stems, making a superb flower for cutting. $1.50 ea.; 3 for $3.75.‡

★MARK SULLIVAN. H.T.

Plant Pat. applied for. Large, glowing blooms of golden yellow, heavily veined and shaded with deep rose-pink and cerise, are freely produced all season and have a rich honey fragrance. $1.25 ea.; 3 for $3.15.‡
